

Carolina Consortium on Human Development: Fall 2016

Socializing Other-Focused Behaviors, Emotions, and Values in Children (Psychology 781)

Meetings are on Mondays from 2:00-3:15 PM in the CDS lower level classroom. (Class 3:30-5:00 PM)

Date	Speaker	Institutional Affiliation	Title	Readings
09/12	Audun Dahl	University of California, Santa Cruz	The development of infant helping through social interactions	Reading 1
09/19	Joni Sasaki	York University	A bio-cultural approach to studying religion's effects	Reading 1 ; Reading 2
09/26	Parissa Ballard	UC Berkeley	Socializing community-focused behavior in adolescence: Civic development across social contexts	Reading 1 ; Reading 2
10/03	Class meeting only; no speaker (Rosh Hashanah)	-	-	-
10/10	Gustavo Carlo	University of Missouri	Fostering prosociality in Latino/a youth: Practices, values, and prosocial behaviors.	Reading 1 ; Reading 2
10/17	No class or speaker (Fall Break)	-	-	-
10/24	Michael Tomasello	Duke University	Young children are naturally motivated to cooperate.	Reading 1 ; Reading 2
10/31	Class Meeting: Presentation Planning	-	-	-
11/07	Ariel Knafo	The Hebrew University of Jerusalem	Do Children have values? Revisiting current notions of moral development Note: Dr. Knafo will be speaking at The Great Room at Top of the Hill at 5:00 PM instead of at the normal 2:00 PM time.	Reading 1 ; Reading 2
11/14	Jennifer Jenkins	University of Toronto	Pursuit of the common ground: the role of individuals, dyads and families in the development of other-orientation	Reading 1 ; Reading 2 ; Reading 3
11/21	Andrea Hussong	UNC Chapel Hill	Updates from the Raising Grateful Children Project	Reading 1 ; Reading 2 ; Reading 3 ; Reading 4
11/28	Student Presentations	-
12/05	Judith Smetana *Cairns Capstone Lecture Hyde Hall	Rochester University	Emerging moral minds: Moral judgment development in early childhood	Reading 1 ; Reading 2 ; Reading 3

*The Cairns Capstone Lecture will be in Hyde Hall on UNC Chapel Hill's Campus.